

Rob Cornell – PBI Tennis Director. Rob has taught for PBI for 24 years, and was previously the Tennis Director for The American Club, Hong Kong. Rob has an amazing amount of tennis coaching experience, having taught in 18 different countries. Based in the United Arab Emirates, Bahrain, and Sultanate of Oman from 1976 to 1990, he co-coordinated the operation and direction of over 25 tennis facilities within the Middle East and Africa. He also spent 11 years teaching and directing the tennis program at Melbourne Park. Rob is originally from Allegan, Michigan, U.S.A. Career highlights include coaching Daniela Di Toro to the World's Number One Ranking singles player in wheelchair Tennis and seeing another of his students, Indian Mahesh Bhupathi reaching the Number One Doubles Ranking on the ITF tour with partner and fellow compatriot, Leander Paes. In Rob's spare time he has a love for yoga and is a certified yoga teacher.

Muhammad Azhar Zainudin – PBI Staff Professional (Singapore). Azhar graduated from LaSalle College of Arts, Advertising Design. He has been coaching tennis in Singapore since 1996, and has been with The Club for 10 years. As an accomplished competitive junior player, Azhar has represented Singapore in tournaments all over Asia. He is also a member of the National Registry of Coaches, and the Singapore Sports Council. Azhar completed the PBI training program in Singapore in 2007.

Herman Ali – PBI Staff Professional (Singapore). Herman has over 10 years of coaching experience, and has taught at some of Singapore's most prestigious schools, such as the Hwa Chong Junior College, Tanjong Katong Girl's School, and Nanyang Polytechnic. Before joining The Club, Herman coached at the Laguna National Golf & Country Club, Amrita Spa Swiss Hotel, Hollandse Club, and Swiss Club. Herman completed the PBI training program in Singapore in 2007.

Christophe Torres (USPTA) – PBI Staff Professional (Cannes, South France). Christophe taught at ASLM Cannes Tennis between 1998-2003, where he obtained the French teaching certification of BEES 1 Degree. Christophe then played for Northwood University, in Florida, while teaching at the East Point Country Club for 2 years. Prior to moving to Singapore, Christophe was with PBI at Kapalua Resort in Maui, Hawaii, after completing the PBI training program at Reynolds Plantation in 2007.

Leslie Anklovitch – PBI Staff Professional (Prince George, British Columbia, Canada). Leslie was the Tennis Director at Four Seasons Resort Chiang Mai, Thailand from 2004 to 2009 and Tennis Director at Four Seasons Singapore from 2009 to 2010. Prior to joining PBI he worked as a Financial Controller while playing the tennis tournaments in British Columbia. Leslie completed the 400-hour PBI training program in Palm Desert, California in 2004.

